

Playgroup Supervisors

Roscoe's Bed + Bark is a dog daycare in Portland, Maine with the mission to make Portland a better place to be a dog lover. Our goal is to provide loving, transparent service to our clients while simplifying their busy lives.

We're looking for motivated, team oriented pet lovers who are interested in furthering their careers in the animal care industry! The ideal candidate for our team will be professional, dedicated to the hard work of providing a safe and fun environment for dogs 24/7/365, and interested in ample opportunities to grow with a young company. We're looking for both full and part time candidates who are willing to work weekends, overnight, holidays, and in inclement weather.

Key responsibilities include:

- Supervising dog daycare playgroups, providing a safe and fun environment for all dogs.
- Forging individual relationships with dogs to better understand their personalities, behavior, and the play groups in which they'd best be happy and successful.
- Enthusiastic commitment to initial and ongoing learning and training, through which you will gain an understanding of dogs, how they learn and perceive their environment, how to utilize positive reinforcement, and how to engage them in enriching play.
- Cleaning up after dogs, maintaining a clean and professional atmosphere.
- The above list of job duties is not exhaustive, and the team member will be required to undertake such tasks as may reasonably be expected within the scope of the role.

Requirements:

- Embrace, demonstrate, and reinforce our core values of love, transparency, and simplicity.
- Reliable and hardworking, with a desire to work in a professional, positive, fast-paced, team-based environment.
- Willing and able to work weekends, holidays, and during inclement weather.
- Ability to stand for several hours at a time and to lift and move up to 50 pounds.
- Though not required, preference will be given to those who have professional experience with animals especially in a pet care role as a veterinary assistant or kennel technician and/or supervisory experience of teammates in a retail or service industry.

Salary & Benefits:

- Starting pay $15.00 per hour. Additional compensation based on education and experience
- Health insurance
- Paid vacation
- Bring your dog to work

Why Roscoe's?

We are a 24/7/365 staffed facility and candidates must be willing to work weekends, holidays and in inclement weather. Candidates who are professional, dedicated to the hard work of providing a safe and fun environment for our clients, willing to further their dog education, and be actively engaged with the our amazing pups, are all traits that are highly valued at Roscoe's. We promote from within and are looking for people who are interested in growing and developing their career with us!
